Eye-Opening Information on Freemasonry

Freemasons often pretend that joining a Masonic Lodge is acceptable for Christian men. We believe that if something is true it can stand being questioned. If it is not true then it needs to be questioned!

Let's look at some quotations from Freemasonry's own authorities.

"If true religion is thus to be narrowed down to salvation in no other name under heaven (than Jesus Christ), and St. Paul's words to this effect be understood in a spirit of bigoted literalness, then any such 'Christian' must indeed be straining his conscience to the breaking point by accepting initiation into the broader and deeper mysteries of Freemasonry. I, for one, can never understand how any (Christian)... can become a Freemason without suffering from spiritual schizophrenia."
("Light Invisible" p. 24, by Vindex - famous British Freemason author)

"A considerable amount of excision was necessitated by the alteration of the clause in the (Masonic) Constitution which changed Masonry from a Christian to a non-Christian basis... Anything Christian was eliminated."
("The Higher Degree Handbook," p. 25, by J.S.M. Ward, 33o Masonic Historian, writing about the changes made in 1813).

"We see that Christ is not a unique personage, but the first-fruit - the promise of man made perfect... to attain the Christ-state is salvation."
("Ancient Mysteries & Modern Freemasonry," by C. H. Vail, 33o Masonic Authority).

"It is far more important that men should strive to become Christs than that they should believe that Jesus was the Christ."
("The Secret Doctrine," J. D. Buck, M.D., 33o Masonic Historian).

"The ancient wisdom declares that every man, as an immortal soul, is his own saviour, because if he does not save himself then he will not be saved, and this is the view of modern Masonry - man is the builder of his own immortal soul by both faith and works within the Lodge of his own body."
("The Meaning of Masonry," p. 93, by Lynn F. Perkins, 33o Masonic Authority).

"The prevailing Masonic opinion is that the Bible is only a symbol of Divine Will, Law or Revelation, and not that its contents are Divine Law, inspired or revealed. So far, no responsible authority has held that a Freemason must believe the Bible or any part of it."
("Masonic Encyclopaedia," p. 520, Henry W. Coil, 33o Masonic Authority).

"The degrees of initiation are but the degrees of the evolution of the God in man."
*(p. 190) "As the Master Mason labours in accordance with his vows, he slowly weaves this spotless robe out of the transmuted energy of his efforts."
("The Lost Keys of Freemasonry," p. 90, Manley P. Hall, 33o Masonic Authority).*

For further information on Freemasonry from a Christian perspective, we recommend the resources shown. They are being used widely, in many countries, and with considerable effect to inform and free people. Some Articles of interest & Prayer Guidelines on how to break Masonic curses off your family and church may also be found on our website. Most material is in the English language, but there is also information and prayer guidelines in Spanish, French, Portuguese, German and Italian languages.

"For every Masonic writer who says that Freemasonry is not a religion, there are five Masonic writers who claim that it is a pagan religion. While they may disagree as to which pagan religion, they are all agreed that Christianity is wrong and its teachings must not be allowed in the Lodge."

("The Origins & Teachings of Freemasonry," p. 115, by Dr. Robert Morey).

Aren't these interesting quotes! There are many others we could provide. Most men were hoodwinked into joining, without fully understanding what Freemasonry is about. That also includes the women who joined the Eastern Star. Spiritual blindness commences in the very first degree ritual, preventing them seeing the curses and iniquities they bring on their families, churches and communities.

Christians don't despise Freemasons; we are concerned for their spiritual welfare. When they alienate themselves from God, and, according to the Bible, bring His curses onto themselves and their families, we have a responsibility to explain to them the consequences of their unfortunate choices.

Here are a few quotes from Denominational Statements on Freemasonry of the many available.

Anglican Synod of New South Wales

"...Freemasonry & Christianity are fundamentally & irreconcilably incompatible; ... Freemasonry teaches & upholds a system of false religious & spiritual beliefs that are contrary to Biblical Christianity." (Anglican Church 46th Synod, Sydney, Australia 20 Oct., 2003)

Church of England

"There are a number of very fundamental reasons to question the compatibility of Freemasonry with Christianity." (Church of England General Synod, official publication "Freemasonry & Christianity: are they compatible?" page 40, July 1987). The Synod went on to identify the following ten heresies within Freemasonry: Syncretism, Dualism, Polytheism, Socinianism, Pelagianism, Rationalism, Gnosticism, Manicheanism, Idolatry and Satanism.

Methodist Church of England

"There is a great danger that the Christian who becomes a Freemason will find himself compromising his Christian beliefs or his allegiance to Christ, perhaps without realising what he is doing." (M.C.E. official statement, August 1985). They went on to forbid any Masonic meetings or services in any Methodist properties.)

Church of Scotland

"In our view total obedience to Christ precludes joining any organisation such as the Masonic movement which seems to demand a wholehearted allegiance to itself, and at the same time refuses to divulge all that is involved in that allegiance prior to joining... The initiate is required to commit himself to Masonry in a way that a Christian only should commit himself to Christ." (COS Panel on Doctrine, 1965)

The Baptist Union of Scotland

"... The important question is not whether Freemasonry is itself a religion, but whether the undoubted religious elements in it can be accepted by a committed Christian without the danger of compromising the Christian faith. We do not find the argument convincing. ...The clear conclusion we have reached from our enquiry is that there is an inherent incompatibility between Freemasonry and the Christian faith." (B.U.S. report 1987, endorsed by the Baptist Union of Great Britain and Ireland, and reprinted by the Baptist Union of N.Z.)

In June 1993 the Southern Baptist Church of America agreed that Masonry is "pagan, unscriptural and in conflict with basic Christian beliefs."

Lutheran Church

"Masonry is guilty of idolatry. Its worship and prayers are idol worship. The Masons may not with their hands have made an idol out of gold, silver, wood or stone, but they created one with their own mind and reason out of purely human thoughts and ideas. The latter is an idol no less than the former." (Report of the Lutheran Church "The Northwestern Lutheran," p. 281 1958)

Russian Orthodox Church

"The Church does not worship the god that is worshipped in Masonic temples... Masonry is a spiritual disease and is a rival of the Church as a moral guide. It declares that it is not a religion and yet claims to be religious... Since Masonry rejects the divinity of Jesus Christ and places Him on an equal level with founders of other religions, every Christian should stop and realise the implications of Masonry to his Christian faith" ("Masonry or Christ" an official publication of the Russian Orthodox Church.)

Presbyterian Church of America

"No one shall be received into membership into a PCA church who is a member of a Masonic organisation. Present members of a church in the PCA who are members of a Masonic organisation will be given a period of one year to read the report of the Committee to Study Freemasonry, pray and consider their membership in the Order in light of the clear statement of incompatibility of Freemasonry with Biblical Christianity. After said year, they will be allowed to resign membership or become the subject of formal church discipline." (Adopted by the General Assembly of PCA, April 15-16, 1988).

Christian Reformed Church of America

"The lodge member who desires to become a member of the church must be kindly but firmly shown that membership in the lodge and in the church of Jesus Christ involves a double commitment which our Lord himself does not tolerate. Those in the church who affiliate with the Lodge must be shown the error of their way, and if they refuse to repent must be placed under the censure of the Church." (Acts of the Synod, C.R.C.A., 1974)

Many other Christian Denominations could be listed here too. The fact remains that in every case where a Christian denomination has seriously studied Freemasonry, the result has been universal condemnation of the Lodge.

A former Knight's Templar, who is now a Christian, confirmed that Freemasonry's Blue Lodge Ritual requires a man to break 5 of the Ten Commandments (number's 1, 2, 3, 6, and 9); quite apart from any others broken elsewhere in one's life. That wouldn't be acceptable behaviour for a member in any Christian church, let alone its leaders.

CONCLUSION: The evidence is overwhelming that Freemasonry is a pagan religious organisation. People deserve to have complete and accurate information before making decisions that will determine their eternal destiny! Freemasonry has been weighed on the scales of the Bible, God's Word, and found wanting. These men need setting free from the spiritual and other bondages of Freemasonry.
